

End User License Agreement
Cardiff Conversational Database (CCDb)
(www.cs.cf.ac.uk/CCDb/)

June 18, 2013

By signing this document the user, he or she who will make use of the Cardiff Conversational Database (CCDb) or the CCDb interface, agrees to the following terms. With database, we denote both the actual data as well as the interface to the database.

This EULA must be countersigned by an authorised person who is in full-time academic employment.

1 Academic v. Commercial use

The user may only use CCDb for academic research. It is prohibited to use the database for any non-academic purpose. Non-academic purposes, we define to include, but are not limited to:

- proving the efficiency of commercial systems
- training or testing of commercial systems
- using screenshots of subjects from the dataset in advertisements
- selling data from the dataset
- creating military applications
- developing governmental systems used in public spaces

2 Responsibility

This document must be signed by a person with a permanent position at an academic institute (the signee). Up to five other researchers affiliated with the same institute for whom the signee is responsible may be named at the end of this document which will allow them to work with this dataset.

3 Distribution

The user may not distribute the database or portions of the data in any way, with the exception of using the data for the illustrative purpose in academic publications or presentations. Note that publications will have to comply with the terms stated below.

4 Access

The user may only use the database after this End User License Agreement (EULA) has been signed and returned to the Visual Computing Group at Cardiff University. The signed EULA should be returned in digital format by uploading it to the website when requesting account at: <http://www.cs.cf.ac.uk/CCDb/signup>

Once this EULA has been accepted the user will be emailed with instructions as to how to complete his/her account registration and access the data.

In the exceptional circumstance that the user is not capable of requesting an account in this manner, accounts may be requested by sending the signed EULA via traditional mail to:

Prof. David Marshall or Prof. Paul Rosin
Cardiff School of Computer Science & Informatics
Cardiff University
Queens Buildings
5 The Parade
Cardiff
CF24 3AA

5 Citation of CCDB in Any Publications

By the term Publications we include not only papers, but also presentations for conferences or other purposes.

All documents and papers that report on research that use any of CCDB will acknowledge this as follows: “This paper uses data from the Cardiff Conversational Database (CCDB)”. You must also provide a citation to the paper:

A.J. Aubrey, D. Marshall, P.L. Rosin, J. Vandeventer, D.W. Cunningham, C. Wallraven, " Cardiff Conversation Database (CCDb): A Database of Natural Dyadic Conversations", V & L Net Workshop on Language for Vision, CVPR 2013.

The user will send a copy of any document or papers that reports on research that uses CCDb to <ccdb@cs.cardiff.ac.uk>.

6 Legal Stuff

The database comes without any warranty. The Visual Computing Group at Cardiff University cannot be held accountable for any damage (physical, financial or otherwise) caused by the use of the database.

If at any point, the administrators of CCDb have a reasonable doubt that the user does not act in accordance to this EULA, he/she will be notified of this and will immediately have their the access to the database withdrawn.
